NOTICE OF ADJOURNMENT

Pro Se Creditor and Claimant Gregory C. Morse hereby states:

Pro se Creditor and claimant's 89 year old mother is a CLL leukemia patient who is suffering a re-occurrence and serious inflammation of her previously dormant leukemia. At this time, she is suffering a severe medical crisis. Pro se Creditor and claimant's 91 year old father is suffering from dementia in its middle to latter stages. It appears likely that my mother will be required to undergo a rehabilitative regime in order to regain some of the strength she has lost because of this medical flare up.

This flare up was not predicted and is posing hardships on me and the family. I must be available on a moment to moment basis to provide assistance to my mother and father, who is requiring additional support due to my mother's worsened condition. During the period Pro se Claimant's mother is undergoing proper medical and rehabilitation procedures, Claimant is required to be available to support and, if necessary, arrange for the care of both parents on an as required and regularly changing demand basis.

Based upon historical and documented experiences with her previous flare ups, these conditions have taken 60 days to be dealt with and to achieve a degree of safety and normalcy.

Under the direction of the Nathaniel Asher, attempts have been made to arrive at a mutually agreeable date for an Adjournment and re-scheduling of the May 15, 2014 hearing with Jonathan Petts of the law firm of Morrison and Foerster.

Conservations with Mr. Petts have been for naught and no mutually agreeable future date has been agree to. In my absence, I requested Mr. Glenn Gregory, to talk to Mr. Petts on April 28, 2014. Subsequently, Mr. Petts forwarded to me an extortion letter (See Exhibit 726 attached). In this proposed scheduling order, it stipulates that I agree to waive all rights to file any further pleadings with this Court until after the hearing date. Further, it states that this is an agreement between Adam A. Lewis and myself. I have never heard of Attorney Adam Lewis and would not enter into any agreement unless I knew specifically with whom I was dealing. Lastly, I certainly would not agree to voluntarily wave any of my legal rights and voluntarily obligate myself when not required otherwise to do so.

Mr. Petts and the law firm of Morrison and Foerster have shown an utter and complete disregard for the involuntary and uncontrollable trials I am currently dealing with regarding my family. Mr. Petts and the law firm of Morrison and Foerster have been unwilling to consider any adjournment beyond June 10, 2014.

It would be disrespectful to the Court to knowingly agree to a re-scheduled date when, it is known now, that the proposed re-scheduled date is not realistic and would likely have to be reset in the immediate future.

Therefore, in keeping with the Chamber Rules for Judge Martin Glenn's Courtroom as posted on the Southern District of New York Bankruptcy website, I formally and respectfully pray to the Court to adjourn the hearing on the Objection to my claims until Tuesday, July 15, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,
